What is your idea / business and to whom is it addressed?

Doxology farm is a farm that aims to produce sustainable, profitable and unique agri-cultural products by means of drip irrigation system; the product includes graded and packed tomatoes, . These products will be supplied to the Processing companies and other commercial companies to make tomato paste and we already have contracts. Doxology farm so far is going to use 100 hectares land from LOUIS TRICHARDT..

How should the idea/business earn money?

The business will make money by selling to the tomatoes processing companies and to some retail stores. So far we will be supplying to All Joy and Miami Canners companies on contracts of course.

At what stage is the idea / business at the moment?

We have done our marketing and we have put to place all necessary documentation that will be need by the clients, government and municipalities . We just need fund for the purchase of the equipment needed to do this projects so that we can supply to this companies as i have said that we already managed to market our company to them and we have contracts with them in place.

What do you need?

We need investors to help us to fund this project so that we can carry on with the project and be able to produce this products with the right equipment so that we can supply our clients soon.
