What is your idea / business and to whom is it addressed?

Selling of different traditional cultural attires and other ladies clothes,shoes and jewelry for parties,office and casual events. Its is addressed to the public because we all cant misd those functions

How should the idea/business earn money?

We have very many cultural parties for marriages. The bride and maids all hire or buy clothes for functions and even guests put them on for a function. The hiring and selling generate much income for business.

At what stage is the idea / business at the moment?

Am starting up but its highly promising because cultural parties ,events and outings are common for everyone to have new attires.

What do you need?

Capital to buy in bulk best materials,advertise and buy permanent place for my business.
