

THE FUTURE OF COMMUNICATIONS AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT LIES HERE- ONCE IN A LIFETIME OPPORTUNITY

Location of the investment: United States

Publication: 22.06.2020 05:28, no. of the advertisement: 3291

What is your idea / business and to whom is it addressed?

The idea is for an internet radio station. The founder believes that there is a unique opportunity to revolutionize the Internet Radio space, and be the first to offer a one of a kind product in this new digital economic age we are ushering in. This station will boast a different model in the sense that Mr. Brown will use his position in Small Business Development to create the first radio station of it's kind that will hold an interest in the success of those it approaches to advertise on its platform. This station will offer business development, digital marketing, radio advertising, event planning services to companies of all kinds, in any industry.

How should the idea/business earn money?

The Company will acquire 5 Business Development clients per month. Will maintain a quota of 20 advertisers per month. The company will generate revenue with it's indoor digital billboard program. The company will host and sponsor live events. The company will also have an online store, selling merchandise.

At what stage is the idea / business at the moment?

I have acquired partnerships with a Business Development Firm, a Digital Marketing company. I have a sound guy on-board, and access to a video production company. I have written a business plan that thoroughly details the viability of this business being a goldmine.

What do you need?

I need a start-up investment of $25,000 to get the radio station started, the equipment, and to recruit an advisory team that can help this business dominate a shifting industry.
